hit the road for Cape Girardeau the following day. In Cape, the students competed in the SEMO qualifier placing 8th out of 48 teams! After a couple of weeks to tweak the robot, they hit the field again in Harrisonville for the Western Qualifier on February 18th. Unfortunately, it was not the day for Tiger_STEAM. They scored 3rd highest points at the match, but did not advance on to the finals.

It has been a great season for this rookie robot team! So much has been learned about problem solving, teamwork, strategizing, communication, and even a bit about building! We are looking forward to our next build season where we can put to use all the things we learned along the way this season.

A huge thanks to the parents for their support, and to Wyatt Durgan, Linda Lintz and Team_Driven for all their help and support!

SUCCESSFUL YOUNG AUTHORS' CONFERENCE

The first annual PLMS Young Authors Conference was held last Tuesday, February 21st, and the Literacy Team is pleased to announce that it was a success!

Seventy students were honored for their literary or artistic talents with approximately 250 spectators in attendance.

Goody bags were stuffed for the kids, people took a gallery walk and viewed artwork, certificates were awarded, all kids received a bound publication of all nominated work, Toriano Porter of The KC Star delivered the keynote address and refreshments were enjoyed to the merriment of all present!

Thank you to all of those who made this event possible...the custodial staff was awesome with setup and tear down. A special thanks goes out to the Literacy Team members who worked tirelessly to produce this event that will hopefully be held for years to come. Thanks to the PLMS administrative team for their support during this process, to Ted Conn for being our MC, and to Tracy Baker who went out of her way to pull this whole thing off! Thanks to Sue McCanless for being in attendance to support our kids. Lastly, thanks to Lee DePeralta for all of the printing of certificates and bound publication she helped produce...that was a lot of work!

LSHS CHEERLEADER TRYOUTS

Attention 8th grade students – LSHS cheerleading tryouts start March 12th, March 13, and March 14. Pick up a packet in the main office or STAD. The packet needs to be returned to LSHS no later than Friday, March 3rd.
