PLMS IS EXCITED TO HAVE STACEY KINDRED

Stacey Kindred, cafeteria manager at Pleasant Lea Middle School, recently received the School Nutrition Association's highest honor. Stacey was named Regional Manager of the Year by the non-profit organization. The award recognizes a cafeteria manager who has demonstrated dedication and ingenuity to improve his or her school meal program.

Stacey previously worked as cafeteria manager at Summit Pointe Elementary before moving to PLMS for 2017-18. "Stacey Kindred is a great example that cafeteria managers' duties do not end with serving healthy and delicious food to students, but also include creating a positive and enticing environment," said School Nutrition Association's CEO Patricia Montague. "She does whatever she can to better her students' experience, while continuing to reach out to the larger community."

During July, Stacey was honored during the awards ceremony at the School Nutrition Association's Annual National Conference in Atlanta, Ga. She will also be recognized during the Missouri School Nutrition Conference in October, scheduled for Branson.
